COURSE OF INSTRUCTION, &c.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

CANDIDATES for admission to the Freshman Class, are examined in the Grammar of the Latin, Greek, and English Languages, Cicero's Oration against Catiline, Salust, Virgil, Greek Reader, (Feltón's, Colton's, or Jacob's,) Geography, (Ancient and Modern,) and Arithmetic.

For advanced standing, the candidate, whether from another College or not, in addition to the Preparatory Studies, is examined in the studies to which the Class which he wishes to enter has attended.

No one can be admitted to the Freshman Class, till he has completed his fourteenth year, nor to an advanced standing without a proportional increase of age.

Testimonials of good moral character are in all cases required, and those who come from other Colleges must produce certificates of dismissal in good standing. Every Student is required within four weeks from his entrance, to matriculate by signing a pledge to obey the laws of College, and to abstain from the use of intoxicating drinks, and from every species of immorality.

As candidates for admission are frequently found to possess some knowledge of Algebra and Geometry, while they are deficient in Latin and Greek, it is recommended to principals of Academies and other teachers, not to allow preparatory students to anticipate the regular studies of the college course; but to devote the whole time of preparation to the study of the branches required for entrance.

The following books are recommended for reference. Sophocles' Greek Grammar, Kuehner's do., Buttman's do.; Liddell and Scott's Greek Lexicon, Pickering's do.; Crusius' Homeric Lexicon; Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar; Leverett's Latin Lexicon; Ramshorn's Latin Synonymes; Butler's Atlas Classica; Anthon's Classical Dictionary; Eschenburg's Manual of Classical Literature.

In addition to the recitations here specified, Composition, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Declamation, are made prominent objects of the Student's attention.—Thorough training in these respects is considered of the highest importance in making a College Education practically useful. The aim of the whole course is to enable the Student to obtain a well-balanced education, in which the power of expression shall be attained equally with discipline of mind and facility of acquisition.

Translations from English into Latin and Greek, and from these languages into English, are throughout most of the course very frequently required of the Students as an indispensable means of studying the Classics with either pleasure or advantage.

All the Students in the College and the Academy will recite in the English Bible on Monday morning. The plan adopted is one, which, during the full course of study, will give the Student a familiar acquaintance with the Sacred Scriptures.

Lectures will be delivered by the Professor of Natural Philosophy to the Junior Class, second term, on Mechanics and Hydrostatics; and to the Senior Class, first term, on Optics, Meteorology, and Astronomy.

Lectures will be delivered by the Professor of the Natural Sciences to the Junior Class, second term, on Pneumatics, Chemistry, Electricity, Magnetism, and Electro-Magnetism; to the Senior Class, first term, on Mineralogy and Geology.

Lectures on Intellectual and Moral Philosophy will be delivered by the President, and on Classical Literature by the Professor of Languages.

In addition to the Lectures delivered by the Professors in their various Departments, occasional Lectures will be delivered before all the Students, having a direct bearing upon their characters and habits as Students and gentlemen, and designed to promote order, decorum, and an elevated standard of scholarship, as well as to furnish useful information on topics not strictly embraced in any of the departments.

MODERN LANGUAGES.

Instruction in the German, French, Spanish, and Italian languages, is given to those who desire it, on very reasonable terms.

SCIENTIFIC DEPARTMENT.

While it is not thought proper to confer diplomas upon any who have not completed the regular Collegiate Course, yet the present necessities of the West seem to require that our Colleges should furnish facilities for study to such young men as are desirous of pursuing a more thorough English and Scientific Education than can be obtained in our Academies. Such persons are permitted to recite with the College Classes in those studies for which, upon examination, they shall be found prepared; and when they shall have satisfactorily finished the prescribed course, they will be entitled to a certificate declarative of the same, signed by the President of the College.

Candidates for admission to this Department, must have completed their fourteenth year, must bring certificates of good moral character, and must sustain an examination in Grammar, Geography, and Arithmetic.

The full Scientific Course embraces all the studies of the College Course except the Languages, and occupies three years.

In the first year are studied the Mathematics, and other English Studies of the first two College years, the second year those of the Junior Class, the third those of the Senior Class.

The charges for Tuition, &c., are the same as in the College Classes.

MARIETTA ACADEMY.

In the Academy are taught all the branches usually taught in Schools of this character, and especial attention is given to the preparation of young men for College. The recitations in the Classical Course are of the same length as in College, thus furnishing a much greater amount of instruction than is usual in Academies. That this instruction may be as effective as possible, assistance will always be rendered by one or more of the College Faculty.

Scholars under the age of 14 years, both in the Classical and English Course, study the usual number of school hours in the school room, under the eye of the Principal, in order that correct habits of study may be formed.

Special attention will be given to reading and spelling on the part of the older as well as younger pupils. Exercises in translation and composition will be required of the more advanced scholars. Weekly exercises in declamation.

The year in the Academy is divided into three terms of 14 weeks each. The first commences six weeks from the last Wednesday in July, and is followed by a vacation of one week. The second is succeeded by a vacation of three weeks, and the third, which closes on Commencement Day, by a vacation of six weeks.

FALL VACATION, NINE WEEKS.

Sept. 27. Winter term begins, Wednesday, 5 P. M.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

Commencement is on the last Thursday of July.

The College year is divided into two terms and two vacations. The first term is of twenty-six weeks, the second of fourteen. The first vacation continues nine weeks from Commencement, the second three weeks from the end of the first term. (For dates, see Calendar.)

The first exercise in each term for the College Classes, is prayers Wednesday evening, at which every Student is expected to be present. In the Fall Term, recitations will commence at 11 A. M. Friday, Thursday being devoted to choosing rooms and removing. In the Spring Term, the first recitation is at 11 A. M. Thursday.

No Student is allowed to be absent without special leave, except in vacations. The absence of a Student in term time, even for a few days, occasions a much greater injury to his progress in study than parents and guardians commonly suppose, and they are earnestly requested not to give their consent to any absence except for very urgent reasons.

Should the return of the Student be delayed beyond the beginning of a term from any cause, he is required to report himself to the Presiding officer immediately upon his arrival in town.

In all the departments, it is of great importance that Students should enter at the beginning of the term, and none will be received for a shorter period than one term, except in the Primary Class of the Academy.

EXAMINATION.

At the close of the year, there will be a thorough examination in each department of study, occupying between one and two weeks, which will be attended by a body of Examiners appointed by the Board, and will be so conducted as to make it an actual test of the amount and accuracy of the knowledge acquired by the student.

EXPENSES.

The annual charges in the Treasurer's bill are,

For Tuition in the College Course,	-	-	$25
Room rent, where two occupy a room, including stove, $5 to $7, according to the size of the room,			$6
For the use of the Library,	-	-	$1
For ordinary incidentals—average	-	-	$4

Amount of Treasurer's bill,	-	$36
-----------------------------	---	------

Board in private boarding houses may be had at

from $1,25 to $1,50 per week, amounting, exclusive of vacations, to from	-	-	$50 to $60
--	---	---	--------------

Wood, washing, and lights,	-	-	$10 to $14
----------------------------	---	---	--------------

Total,	-	-	$96 to $110
--------	---	---	---------------

Parents sometimes prefer that their sons should be placed in charge of a private family, instead of rooming in College; in such cases, the charges for every thing, vary from $2,00 to $2,50 per week.

A statement of prices of tuition in the Academy will be found on another page.

Bills for Tuition, Room-rent, and use of Library, are payable in advance, at the commencement of each term.

Where the Student retains his standing, no deduction will be made for absence.

Whenever a student wishes, for any cause, to leave the Institution, he should procure from the Presiding officer a certificate of dismissal; and until such certificate is obtained, he will be required to pay tuition.

To guard against unnecessary expense, parents and guardians often deposit funds with some member of the Faculty, or some person approved by them, who will give particular attention to the pecuniary affairs of the Student, and render an account of expenditures. THIS COURSE IS EARNESTLY RECOMMENDED TO ALL WHO INTEND PLACING THEIR SONS, OR WARDS, AT THIS INSTITUTION, AND ALSO, THAT THEY NEITHER AUTHORIZE THE OBTAINING OF CREDIT, NOR PAY DEBTS UNAUTHORIZED BY THEM.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library embraces, in addition to works of general literature, a valuable collection of Philological works, procured in Europe.

A Library of Text Books connected with the Institution, furnishes, at a trifling per centage, nearly all the Text Books used in the Preparatory and College Courses; and a considerable portion of these are the best German editions of entire works.

In addition to these, there are three Libraries belonging to the College Societies, carefully selected, and placing within the reach of students a considerable amount of useful reading.

The present number of volumes in the several libraries is as follows:—

College Library, General Literature,	-	-	2600
“ “ Philology,	-	-	1000
Psi Gamma Society Library,	-	-	750
Alpha Kappa “ “	-	-	700
Society of Inquiry “	-	-	500

FUND FOR THE INDIGENT.

The Board have commenced raising a fund for the aid of pious and indigent young men, preparing for the ministry. Such progress has been made that they are able to remit a considerable portion of the tuition of twenty-five or thirty students.

Pious young men having the ministry in view, can receive aid from the American Education Society.

Industrious and enterprising students can readily defray a considerable portion of their necessary expenses, by means of the different employments which the place affords.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

Prayers are attended morning and evening in the College Chapel, with the reading of the Scriptures, when all the students are required to be present. Every student is required regularly to attend some one place of public worship twice on the Sabbath, being at liberty to connect himself with any one of the regular religious congregations of the place, at his own option, or according to the wishes of his parent or guardian.

A Lecture on some topic of Natural or Revealed Religion, is delivered to all the students weekly.
